

Dear Mr. Powell,

I know that you must be under a great deal of pressure to give the media giants more power. PLEASE DO NOT give it to them. We as a country need to have a diverse view of what is going on not only in our own backyard, but also around the world. Please help to restrain them.